QUESTION: Why is a Cincinnati May Musical Festival?

EVERY month appears to be able to furnish its own cold storage.

APRIL and May are making a noise like they wanted to insurgue away from the Gentle Annie business.

JOHN W. KERN's chief stock of campaign thunder is profanity. But he has failed, thus far, to cuss himself into office.

UNCLE JOE may be excused for remarking that life is made up of one damned thing after another.—Commercial Tribune.

PRESIDENT TAFT strikes you from the very first as being straightforward, sincere and transparently honest. Your impulse is to trust him.—Toledo Globe.

It is now plain "Citizen ROOSEVELT." All other honorable and official titles are tabooed. Good-bye to the "Colonel," but "Teddy" is going to be quite hard to forget.

THE prediction, that within two years Senator BEVERIDGE will be a Democrat, stands little chance of being verified. There are already more Indiana Democrats than there are places for.—Louisville Times.

PERHAPS the honorable Supreme Court imagines it vulgar to act in a hurry.

ALDRICH retires on the plea of ill-health; but if CANNON retires it will be on account of ill-health.—Kansas City Star.

OHIO has three living ex-Governors—JOSEPH B. FORAKER, JAMES E. CAMPBELL and MYRON T. HERRICK. But is FORAKER living?

If MISTAH JOHNSING wants to avoid a fatal attack of cold feet he had better not read the hair-raising "Story of My Life" by JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

MRS. RUTH BRYAN-LEAVITT-OWEN is evidently endeavoring to make a record in the matrimonial stakes. Like her distinguished Pa, RUTH is no quitter and is strictly at home in the spot-light.

THE first ticket for the fight between JIM JEFFRIES and JACK JOHNSON at San Francisco on July 4th will be presented to THEODORE ROOSEVELT on his arrival in New York. Mrs. CARRIE NATION should be given ticket No. 2.

MARSE HENRY's elongated editorials are now enjoyed as schooner mint juleps, so to speak. They are mighty good while you are drinking them, but if you swallow too many you are apt to wake up the next mornin' after the night before with that dark brown Democratic taste in your mouth.

A NEW SCHEME.

"Sued for breach of promise, eh?"
"Ysp."
"Any defense?"
"Temporary insanity, and I expect to prove it by the love letters I wrote."

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it lays a sure sign that these countless germs are busy at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

5¢ Bottles Guaranteed.

"THE KING IS DEAD; LONG LIVE THE KING!"

LONDON, ENGLAND, May 7th.—King Edward VII, who returned to England from a vacation ten days ago in the best of health, died at 11:45 o'clock last night in the presence of his family, after an illness of less than a week, which was serious hardly more than three days.

The Prince of Wales succeeded to the crown immediately, according to the custom of the Kingdom, without official ceremony.

Edward VII. ascended the throne on the death of Queen Victoria on January 22d, 1901, so that he was King less than ten years.

He was born at Buckingham Palace on November 9th, 1841, the son of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

He was the world's greatest sport and most popular monarch.

THE NEW KING OF ENGLAND.

George Frederick Ernest Albert, Prince of Wales, who now becomes King, is the second son of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, and was born at Marlborough House June 3d, 1865.

Every Year

When you revive the furniture from its winter sleep you ought to add some little thing that will make your home permanently better. You have a battered, dingy chair, perhaps a table, a bookcase—some part of your household equipment is worn out and needs replacement. Make sure that the new piece is durable and of a good quality, so that you can hand it down as a family heirloom. High-class furniture, such as "Karpen" makes, costs little more than the cheap kinds. It makes your home a little better each year. With our easy payment plan it is delightfully simple to add these better things to your home. Beds, made in metal by several of the best designers in the country. Wood Suites, in the finer woods, especially one complete suit in CIRCASSIAN WALNUT of unusual beauty. Chairs for every room; Dining Chairs of rich golden oak, early English and mahogany. Rockers and Arm Chairs that make rest a pleasure. Dining Tables of oak and early English; some square, some round, some with five legs, others with center pedestal and famous Tyden lock. Tables for the dining-room of all widths and in eight, ten and twelve-foot lengths. Parlor Suites of three pieces and more, supplemented by Davenport and Odd Chairs that harmonize perfectly. Many Suites in mahogany and the finest grained oak.
